

Weblinks... Good Shepherd Download Page for Peace Day 2010

The home of the United Nations Peace page

Great information and resources <http://www.internationaldayofpeace.org/>

UN Secretary General Ban Ki-Moon has announced that this year's Peace Day Theme is "Peace, Youth and Development" under the slogan "Peace = Future".

The Good Shepherd Network Gathering on Sept 28th

has as its theme 'if you want peace work for justice'

Find out more about the Network Gathering's international speakers. UN worker, Sr Winifred Doherty, to speak at Network Gathering. Here she talks of how GS experiences in Australia can influence UN moves on poverty, trafficking and education.

Imagine whirled peace! In today's world, peace needs to be more than just a word. Pinwheels for peace is about creating a visual public statement about peace.

<http://www.pinwheelsforpeace.com/pinwheelsforpeace/home.html> They have some excellent resources – including the pattern for pinwheels.

Peace One Day

Get involved, make a statement and take action. Plenty of ideas, links and resources available. <http://www.peaceday.org/en/welcome> View Peace One Day on Facebook

Ecumenical resource: 'Peace Be With You'

Download from the National Council of Churches website: <http://www.ncca.org.au/>

Pace E Bene Australia

Pace e Bene Australia is an associated body to the US-based Pace e Bene Nonviolence Service. It facilitates a number of peace workshops around Australia. You can be supported to facilitate a program for your community or be given some advice on how to do it yourself. <http://www.freewebs.com/juswhe/>

Discussion Guide – World Day of Peace Message 2010

The ACSJC discussion guide on Pope Benedict XVI's World Day of Peace Message consists of a brief overview of the message, some points for reflection and prayer. This is an ideal resource for schools and social justice discussion groups. <http://www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au/>

if you want peace, work for justice